Conditions of participation
The camp will host a maximum of 150 participants. It is expected that each participant behaves and acts in an acceptable and supportive way. In case of refusal to follow instructions given by the camp crew, or inappropriate behavior, the organizer is allowed to take measures or in case of severe violations of the camp rules to exclude the participant from camp. The return voyage is to be organized by the parents, the participant has to pay the costs, a repayment of camp fees is not possible.

After registration, the person who registers will receive an invoice (280€/250€ TGW members). The registration fee has to be paid within 30 days (no later than beginning of camp).

If a participant decides to withdraw his registration, 50% of the camp fee will be repaid.

The entire fee will be repaid, if a substitute is given. Participants must have health insurance.

Registration is only possible by people who, by the time of their registration, are at least 18 years old.

It is not allowed to leave camp without the permission of the camp director. Participants under the age of 18 are only allowed to leave camp with a written permission by their parents.

In case of hot weather, the campers might spend an afternoon in a public swimming pool. Only children, who are able to swim are allowed to take part in this trip!
